Submission on Water Conservation Order-Oreti River (Form 30)

Section 205, Resource Management Act 1991

1. In completing your submission include:
  - whether you support or oppose the Order, and the reasons for your views
  - If you support the Order, but prefer to preserve a different but related water body in the same catchment, state this and your reasons
  - If you support the Order, but prefer to preserve different features and qualities of the water body, state this and your reasons.

In giving reasons for these preferences, you must refer, if practicable, to the matters set out in sections 199, 200 and 207 of the Resource Management Act 1991. You must also describe the provisions that you think should be included in the Order and the effects that those provisions would have on the water body.

2. If you oppose the Order, you must give reasons why you consider that the Order is not justified in terms of sections 199 and 207 of the Resource Management Act 1991.
3. The Special Tribunal may require you to provide further information on your submission.
4. You must send a copy of your submission to the applicant as soon as reasonably practicable after you have served your submission on the Special Tribunal.

Submissions must be received by the Special Tribunal at its address stated below by 5pm on Wednesday 15th November 2006.

2. * My/our submission is (see notes 1 and 2):
I strongly support the application for a water conservation order for the Oreti river. I have been a fishing guide for many years and fished all over NZ. The Oreti is the best brown trout fishery I have ever fished. Not only is the fishing brilliant, but more importantly, it is easily accessible for anybody, unlike comparable rivers that can only be accessed by chopper or very fit people with days of tramping. The Oreti River is one of the main reasons that my family decided to move to Te Anau. The Oreti is totally unique in Southland and we would have to go a long way to find another comparable river. Due its clean and clear water, the fish are big and numerous and the scenery gives a remote feeling, while never being too far away from the safety of civilization. If the Oreti ever gets ruined, like so many other rivers have, it would indeed be a sad day and we would be on the look for another place to call home. Being of European decent and having fished all over the planet, I and my international clients can confirm that there are not many Oretis in the world, so let's protect it for future generations!

3. *I/we seek the following decision from the special tribunal (give precise details, including the general nature of any changes sought to the Order)
I want the tribunal to grant the order in the form it has been applied for.

Summary of application

The applicant seeks protection of:

- the main stem of the Oreti River upstream of Mossburn
- Weydon Burn, Windley River and all other tributaries upstream of Lincoln Hill
- Groundwater connected to the surface water of the river from Mossburn upstream to the headwaters

In recognition of the following outstanding features and characteristics

- Natural state, wild and scenic
- Fishery and angling amenity
- Habitat for trout and wildlife
- Value in accordance with tikanga Maori,

The outstanding features and characteristics are to be protected by prohibiting damming; restricting the taking of surface water and groundwater, restricting alteration of river flow, form or water quality; and the maintenance of fish passage.

The applicant also seeks protection of the main stem of the Oreti between Mossburn and the bridge at Wallacetown, for:

- Its necessary contribution to the outstanding angling and fishery values upstream.
- This necessary contribution is to be protected in this stretch by a prohibition on damming, which will enable fish passage to be maintained.

The application is supplemented by further information provided to the Minister in July and August 2005.
