Dear Sir,

That the National Party would even contemplate, ceding ownership and control of water reticulation, based upon racial preference is beyond comprehension.

To expose the population of this country to the greed of the Maori elite and to have surrendered, in perpetuity, that element that is every man's birthright is nothing short of criminal.

If this happens it will be suicide for the National Party.

Robert Barnett.

I am alarmed that the National party, who up to now has had my support, is considering a move to gift control of our lakes and rivers to iwi. Access and consumption of clean, fresh water is a birthright of everyone and it would be political suicide for National, if it passed legislation, to submit another money grabbing opportunity to Maori elite. NEW ZEALAND FIRST is starting to look like a viable option !! Robert Barnett
