

Please consider improving these. I am told they are not good enough to allow fish like trout and salmon to survive which is a tragedy. We should be expecting at least that level of water quality in our freshwater, as a basic marker of the health of a waterway.

Rowena East