

I can't believe there is even a debate over this... I lament the fact that we can't still drink from the rivers. But far worse, i would hate for future generations to never know the sheer bliss that is a swim in a clear lake or river. Please protect our natural assets; much easier to protect them now than to regenerate them later.

Regards

Joanna Fairclough