

I would like to offer my opinion that safe water should mean safe for children to be immersed in, not just safe for wading in. We need Section 4.3 Compulsory Value to be set a swimmable/ safe immersion level. It is not acceptable that in this so called clean green country the bar on water quality be lowered. I think the majority of New Zealanders would be horrified to know that there was a submission to lower the standard.

Jennifer Jack

[withheld]