

I am writing to submit on the National Policy Statement for freshwater management. I oppose relaxed water standards that let business pollute rivers and lakes past acceptable standards. We need controls that are set by scientists who know what water standards will allow people to use waterways for swimming, and animal and plant species to live.

Jono Ryan