

It is important that NZ rivers are restored to an acceptable state of cleanliness .
Dairy run off and excessive fertiliser use are ruining waterways that in the past were part of every family's right to use for recreation . Any government policy that accepts lower standards should not be accepted.

Alison Safey
Wanganui

Sent from my iPad