

From: [withheld]
To: WaterReformPublicConsultation
Subject: Submission 02084 - James Stewart - Rivers are for swimming
Date: Saturday, 1 February 2014 9:29:21 a.m.

James Stewart
[withheld]

To whom it may concern.

Please act to save the integrity of our rivers for future generations.

There should be an underlying principle in any legislation, rules or plans that "rivers shall be fit for people to swim in". If people can swim in them then their wider health will also be protected.

It is not good enough to let our rivers degrade as the proposed standards allow.

Jamie Stewart