

[REDACTED]

From: Laurence Hay [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, 1 June 2015 10:12 a.m.
To: Climate Contribution
Subject: Submission 10956

Climate change is probably the most serious problem that humankind has ever faced. It requires swift and significant action by every government. New Zealand should be able to do at least as well as Norway in setting its climate change mitigation target: a 40% reduction of CO2 emissions by 2030 compared to 1990 levels.

Laurence Hay, [REDACTED]