Submisson on the Water 2017 Consultation

Craig Marshall

To the Environment Minister,

I am disappointed by the Swimmable Rivers proposal. The criteria you have chosen to use are well-nigh incomprehensible, even to those expert in this area. I suggest that you redraft at least this part of the legislation to make it easier to follow.

As it stands, not only are the current proposals incomprehensible, but they suggest to me that they are there to obfuscate and to confuse what this legislation actually achieves.

Make the standards simpler to follow, make them meaningful so that the swimmable rivers slogan is real and not just a piece of propaganda.

Regards,

Craig Marshall
