Submission on the Water 2017 Consultation

Honora Renwick

To the Environment Minister,

When I lived overseas, the main reason I came back here to live was the purity of our countryside streams. They were genuinely swimmable.

Please don't leave the status quo as your legacy. If you need some advice, Dr Mike Joy is a good starting point. No one is fooled by the recent changes to the standards.

The urban folks need to be encouraged to have as much non-paved areas as possible and we should be encouraged to have tanks for collecting grey water for non-potable use (at least).

yours sincerely
Honora Renwick
